A Thoughtful DamnVon Ein KundeThis really is a marvelous book--full of all the details and asides that you don't get to read elsewhere. I found it amusing as well as informative. The author, Dr. Russo, clearly knows his subject--and shares his knowledge in a very entertaining way.

KurzbeschreibungWhen Oscar-winning director decides to go to Vietnam to film a version of Graham Greene's Cold War novella, he encounters problems. Casting American war hero Audie Murphy as the leading star has box-office power, but Audie is far from a director's kind of actor. He has his own unique perspective (and brings his long-time aide Willard Willingham with him for assistance). Michael Redgrave also joins the group. Russo interviewed Willingham extensively and all other surviving members of the cast and crew, including co-star Giorgia Moll, for the most interesting insider view of the making of a movie destined for box-office failure with the highest levels of talent.NOW WITH over 50 SELDOM SEEN PHOTOS OF THE PRODUCTION IN VIETNAM.KurzbeschreibungWhen Oscar-winning director decides to go to Vietnam to film a version of Graham Greene's Cold War novella, he encounters problems.
