Von GRH "Ex WHA Jet" A Winnipeg Album is a book that visually chronicles the rapid rise of Winnipeg in the early 1900s. It is almost startling to note the rapid growth of the city, especially 1870 to 1920 period, from a small settlement to a smaller version of Chicago within a generation. The optimism of the period is quite apparent through the grand architecture of buildings such as the Manitoba Legislature Building, the old gingerbread style City Hall, not to mention the CNR Station and warehouse Exchange District. One has to wonder what Winnipeg would be like at present had it not lost the optimism of that era.
