KurzbeschreibungThe near future. An adolescent girl, misunderstood by her mother and neglected by her absent father, grows up in a world where racial segregation, social injustice and environmental devastation go hand in hand. When she learns of the existence of a people with extraordinary powers over body and mind, her desire to be one of them clashes violently with her familys expectations of her. Harnessing these powers, she could save humanity from self-destruction and the Last Forest from extinction. But someone does not want her to realize the extraordinary potential that lies dormant in her nature...KurzbeschreibungThe near future.
