The only digital version dealing with Organiski's workVon Isabelle Alexandra BonenkampI wanna thank you for sharing your essay because I have searched all over the net for a digital copy dealing with the theory. I could not find one and I am so happy to have at least your summary. Its so hard when there is no library around to get this kind of old text... thank you!

Kurzbeschreibung Essay from the year 2008 in the subject Politics - International Politics - Region: Far East, grade: 1,5, Free University of Berlin (Center for Global Politics), course: International Relations Theory, language: English, abstract: Organski concludes that there are no really viable possibilities to encounter a rising potent and powerful challenger and to stop him from growing. Against this background it would be rather reasonable for the US to accept other (regional) powers arising in the world, and therefore to resume Clintons policy of strategic partnership (Miller 2005, p. 17) in terms of cultivating friendship with China instead of isolating or arming against
