It's good for me, anyway, that am uninitiated: to tackle with Talmud is just like having the fight Jacob had, when he became Israel (Genesis, 25-29). We don't want it to wrench our mind's hip - thus we need to be led by the hand, carefully and wisely, so that we're not frightened by the task... I think this work achieves its aim: it introduces to Talmud without scaring you off, and you start enjoying it, appreciating the profundity of thought and using it to your benefit. Talmud is teaching, and teaching needs to be done gradually and serenely, otherwise the task becomes ominous and discouraging. Here instead, you "swim" at ease and learn to cope with life - you don't need to be Jewish for that!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. sehr schoenes BuchVon AstridWirklich lesenswert, viel Neues, viele Erklaerungen, sehr viele gute Gedanken die lange nachwirken. Leider ist fuer die Kindle-Ausgabe ein Teil des Textes in einen anderen gerutscht.Das Buch ist so aufgebaut: immer zuerst der Originaltext aus dem Talmud, dann die Bibeltexte auf die er sich bezieht zitiert, dann die Erklaerungen des Originaltextes, und dann die Deutung fuer heute. Es hat mir leid getan als das Buch zu Ende war. Wer TED-Talks mag wird dieses Buch vermutlich auch moegen. Viel Info, viel Klugheit.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. a first rate introductionVon Ein KundeThis book helps to make sense of the many layers of the onion of Jewsih thought. It puts into everyday terms the thoughts and views of our sages.
