KurzbeschreibungThe Cardinal's Hat is the fascinating story of how Ippolito d'Este, the second son of Lucretia Borgia, acquired the coveted cardinal's hat and became the Archbishop of Milan. Working with Ippolito's letters and ledgers, recently uncovered in an archive in Modena, Italy, Mary Hollingsworth has pieced together a fascinating and undeniably titillating tale of this Renaissance cardinal and his road to power and wealth in sixteenth century Europe. The ledgers document every aspect of Ippolito's comings and goings, and he comes to life out of the minutiae, as do the lives of his staff.

Pressestimmen'A book as rich and quirky as the Renaissance itself' David Starkey 'Beautifully judged and deeply researched' Charles Nicholl, Sunday Times 'Mary Hollingsworth has succeeded in producing a riveting narrative full of characters otherwise forgotten by history.' History Today A fascinating book; not just for the details, but for the skill with which Hollingsworth interprets them' Jane Stevenson, Observer 'As Mary Hollingsworth shows in this brilliant piece of historical detective work and narrative reconstruction, no one schmoozed the great and the good of 16th-century Europe with quite such elan as Ippolito d'Este.' Kathryn Hughes,
