Ein Juwel von einem BuchVon Beatrix SedlakHabe "The Cove" ber das Gamache-Forum entdeckt und ich bin dankbar dafr! Die Geschichte ist beraus fesselnd, man lebt mit den Charakteren mit, die Erzhlweise und Schreibstil sind derart perfekt und ausgefeilt, kaum zu glauben, dass es sich um ein Erstlingswerk handelt. Absolut lesenswert, Anna Leavy ist damit definitiv auf der Liste meiner Lieblingsautoren!

Kurzbeschreibung "Murder is not the heart of this story. Redemption is, hope is: Because everybody dies, but not everyone knows how to live." Professor Thomas Davidson returns to the holiday cottage of his childhood in the seaside village called The Cove to fulfil his father's dying wish. He has stayed away for three decades afraid to confront the secret he has been hiding, a secret linked to a young girl's disappearance. On his return to The Cove he is surprised to find old friends and new and a place of great meaning and comfort. When the town and lives are threatened Thomas realises just how dangerous silence can be.
