WINE BEAKER Roma Victrix Wein Becher A speedy account of those legendary protagonists that fought the might of Rome - from its infant Republic through to the Empire's dying days in the 5th century AD. Phillip Matyszak manages to combine a good narrative of the life of 17 important figures with a wider analysis of the historical context of the period they lived, and the effect they had on the direction of ancient Rome. Whilst clearly not a definitive account of the lives of each of Rome's enemies it is a great starting point for students or those that are looking to get a good grounding before delving deeper. 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Kurzbeschreibung The gripping stories of the most colourful and formidable characters to challenge the might of Rome. This engrossing book looks at the growth and eventual demise of Rome from the viewpoint of the peoples who fought against it. Here is the reality behind such legends as Spartacus the gladiator, as well as the thrilling tales of Hannibal, the great general, Boudicca, the rebel leader and Mithridates, the connoisseur of poisons, among many others. Some enemies of Rome were noble heroes and others were murderous villains, but each has a unique and fascinating story. Philip Matyszak is the author of several books on the classical world, including 'The Sons of Caesar', 'Chronicle of the Roman Republic' and 'Ancient Rome on Five Denarii a Day', all published by Thames Hudson.
